G. CONTRIBUTIONS TO NATIONAL AND INTERNATIONAL LIFE:

1. Within the University:

Some Administrative Contributions within the University

- A. CESAP Coordinator (2004-2006):- During my tenure as College of Agricultural Sciences Coordinator for the University's Centre for Sandwich Programme, the following achievement were made:-
  - i. The College has a main office for CESAP for the first time. Before then College CASAP Coordinators had always been using their personal offices.
  - ii. The College Coordinator struggled to obtain an official car to enhance administrative effectiveness for the first time.
  - iii. The centre had very conspicuous sign board to pronouncely locate the CESAP office.
  - iv. Lecturers allowances were promptly paid.
  - v. Students' results were promptly computed and released.
  - vi. The University employed a supportive staff for the College Centre for the first time.

- vii. The College obtained many facilities from the University as benefits such as computers, electric generators, public address system, audio-visual aids, motor-cycles among others.

B. Head, Department of Agricultural Extension and Rural Sociology 2006-2008; 2010-2012

During my tenure as Head of Department, AXR, the Department was able to achieve the following:-

- a. Excellent staff/staff and staff/students relationship to ensure peaceful co-existence
- b. Teaching was carried out by lecturers promptly and examinations conducted without any hitch
- c. Results were often computed timely and there was a year during my tenure as HOD (2011) that only final year students from the Department were mobilized for N.Y.S.C. in the College of Agricultural Sciences.
- d. During my tenure as HOD, the Department had no outstanding results.
- e. Village work experience for students to appreciate rural life was enhanced considerably.
- f. Stakeholders meeting was conducted by the Department involving the Ministry of Agriculture, research institutes, Universities and Colleges of Agriculture Farmers' Unions, and others considered relevant to agricultural development in Ogun State.
- g. Departmental Demonstration farm was established.
- h. Departmental Fisheries was established with fish produced for community consumption and research.
- i. Audio-Visual Unit was well equipped for effective performance.
- j. The Ph.D programme successfully took-off.
- k. Post Graduate office was established.
- l. Departmental Library was established.

C. Provost, College of Agricultural Sciences (2012-2016): I served for two terms as Provost of the College of Agricultural Sciences, Olabisi Onabanjo University, Ayetoro Campus, Ayetoro - (a) August 1, 2012 - July 31, 2014 and (b) August 1, 2014 - July 31, 2016.

I came on board with very sharp focus to bring positive transformation to the affairs of the College in all areas. I had specific objectives, vision and mission statements which actually guided me in the proper governance and administration of the College. Some of these objectives include:-

1. Creating enabling and favourable working, teaching and learning environment where genuine love, mutual trust and respect are the watchwords;
2. Upgrading the College of Agricultural Sciences to one of international standard.
3. Embarking sincerely and vigorously on programmes for staff and students welfare, development and motivation; and above all, making the fear of God the bedrock of our operations and activities.

Taking into consideration the above objectives, I came up with the "PPP" agenda, that is PEACE, PERFORMANCE, AND PROGRESS implying that it is only in the atmosphere of peace that there can be effective performance and that when there is effective performance, there would be outstanding progress leading to POSITIVE TRANSFORMATION.

Some of my notable achievements are highlighted below:-

1. Reinstating the Collegiate structure of the College with the creation of two Faculties:
  - (a) Faculty of Agricultural Management and Rural Development
  - (b) Faculty of Agricultural Production and Renewable Resources.
- ii. Creation of additional Departments to bring the number of Departments in the College to six (6) instead of five (5).
- iii. Total accreditation of all academic programmes in the College.
- iv. Increase in Staff strength with the recruitment of many young academic and non-academic staff thus ensuring no department has less than six (6) academic staff as recommended by NUC.
- v. Unprecedented staff promotion with 22 academic staff promoted to various cadres recording thirteen (13) promoted to professorial cadre. This high volume of promotion is unprecedented in the history of staff welfare and promotion in the College.
- vi. Still under staff development and welfare, a good number of staff had their appointment confirmed
- vii. Some Staff members (3) were encouraged to complete their Ph.D programmes.
- viii. Two (2) members of staff received TETFUND sponsorship in two recognized universities abroad.
- ix. Some Lecturers (12) newly recruited staff got their appointments regularized on 12th July, 2016.
- x. Conduct of Ph.D post field seminar was approved to take place at Ayetoro Campus instead of Ago-Iwoye.
- xi. Unprecedented promotion of most if not all deserved non-teaching technical and administrative staff members,
- xii. Students enrolment sporadically increased from what it used to be.
- xiii. Return of 100 level students back to Ayetoro instead of having their lectures at Ago-Iwoye.
- xiv. Inauguration of College of Agricultural Sciences students, Graduates Agricultural Multi-purpose Cooperative Society by the then, Honorable Commissioner for Agriculture.
- xv. Inauguration of Anti-Aids Club of Olabisi Onabanjo University, College of Agricultural Sciences, Ayetoro (World Bank Assisted Project).
- xvi. Enhancing activities of International Association of Students in Agriculture and Related Sciences with tours to Togo, South Africa and other countries in the continent.
- xvii. Ensuring all units and departments got increased impress. For the first time, the Farm Unit and the six Departments received impress to the tune of N50,000.00 each similar to that of the College.
- xviii. During my tenure as Provost, Examinations were conducted timely in accordance with the University's regulations without any hitch. Results were processed timely and all College results were Senate approved and up-to-date as at Hamattan, (2016).

- xix. Unprecedented cordial town/gown relationship was achieved ensuring peaceful coexistence between the College and the host community; the Government through the Ministry of Agriculture, the security outfits, and the press (print and electronic) for publicity. The impressive town / gown relationship earned the Provost a Chieftaincy title:- Otunba Fimogboye of Igan-Okoto land and award of recognition of excellence by the Federal Radio Cooperation, Paramount FM 94.5, Abeokuta. This is the first kind of honour bestowed on any Provost of the College.
- xx. Attendance and Punctuality of staff at work were ensured with zero tolerance to all acts of indiscipline.
- xxi. Adherence to University deadlines on crucial issues was achieved.
- xxii. Orientation Programme was always organized for staff and students to acquaint them with University rules and regulations and proper academic culture. Staff members were also cautioned on their relationship with their colleagues and students. All acts of immorality were condemned and healthy staff/students' relationship was achieved.
- xxiii. The new site for the College was ready for occupation including the two Faculty buildings, the poultry building, piggery Unit and Farm Office. There were three (3) bore holes to supply water to the buildings.
- xxiv. Public/Private Partnership:- This was pursued with resultant cooperation with notable organizations for specific agricultural and non-agricultural projects including:-
  - (a) International Institute for Tropical Agriculture (IITA) for (i) supply of books to the University Library, (ii) Cultivation of 10 Hectares of improved cassava.
  - (b) Ministry of Agriculture: Supply of Tractor.
  - (c) California State University, Fresno, U.S.A.: Memorandum of understanding signed for bilateral relations in academic and human resources development (Staff and Students).
  - (d) Quality Town/gown relationship.
  - (e) Otunba Ibikunle Foundation Supplies 10 sets of computers to the College.
  - (f) National Information Technology Department Agency established Information and Communication Technology (ICT) Unit in the College.
  - (g) Ogun State Agency for Control of AIDs (World Bank Assisted Project).
  - (h) Songhai Institute, Port-Novo, Republic of Benin for students and staff training and practical exposure.
- xxv. Monumental Infrastructural Development in terms of:-
  - (a) Motor Vehicles - Fire Fighter Truck, Ambulance, New Tractors, Mower, Slasher, New Provost's car, 2 cars for the Deans, New Hilux van, and a new College bus.
- xxvi. All offices had full compliments of computer sets and photocopiers.
- xxvii. Information and Communication Technology: -

- (a) The College has an ICT Centre with about 20 sets of computer.
  - (b) The Department of Agricultural Economics and Farm Management had a dry laboratory with 12 sets of computer.
  - (c) The Library:- The library was equipped to be ICT compliant if internet connected.
- xxviii. Sports:- The College was in the vanguard of giving sports the pride of place. Health work, which has now been imbibed and fully embraced by the University and made compulsory for all staff by the University Management was the brain child of the Provost of the College, CAS, immediately he assumed office in 2012. This was also the first of its kind in the history of the College.
- xxix. The College Farm:- The College had a standard Teaching and Research Farm and a 3,000 hectare farm land intended for commercial farm. For the first time, the College Farm became a Directorate with an academic Staff, Dr. H. A. Awojobi appointed as the first Farm Director in the College.
- xxx Utilities:-
- (a) Water:- At the old site, there was consistent water supply from the bore hole to all points of the College including the hostels. And at the new site there were 3 bore holes to supply water to the Farm, and the two Faculties.
  - (b) Electricity:- Efforts were consistently made to ensure there was constant electricity supply on the campus. Apart from supply from the PHCN, there was a standby generator to supply electricity to the campus. Through personal intervention of the Provost, there was always supply of diesel from Ago-Iwoye to power the College generator. generator was always on between 11.00am and 4.00pm daily on week days.
- xxxi. Security on the Campus:- The campus was well secured during my tenure as Provost of the College. The Provost had personal contact with the Police, SSS, Local vigilante and other security agents. For the first time in the history of the College, the Area Commander in Charge of Ogun State visited the campus assuring us of safety. The College Security men were also always at alert. The Provost was always on supervision of the security men even in the mid of the night to ensure efficiency.
- xxxii. Other Units in the College such as GNS, SIWES, the Library and the Health Centre operated with remarkable achievements during my tenure.
- xxxiii. There was religious harmony on the Campus.
- xxxiv. Social life for students and staff was enhanced.
- xxxv. Peaceful coexistence:- There was peace throughout my tenure on the campus as conflicts at any time either from students or staff were often resolved amicably hence the unprecedented monumental achievements during my tenure as Provost of the College of Agricultural Sciences, Ayetoro.
- xxxvi. Contribution to the moral, social and academic life of students.

- D. Chairman, Investigative Panel on remote causes of the problems in the Department of Mass Communication with a new to finding lasting solutions to the problems. Other members in the panel included Prof. O. A. Oyediji, Prof. M. O. Ogungbe, Dr. E. O. Oduwole and Mr. B. A. Ajayi as Secretary. The panel came out with findings and recommendations with audio and video submissions that brought about peace, progress and harmony to the Department.
